

THAT POLITICAL CLUB.

While there are many people in this county who doubt the existence of a secret political club, the APPEAL has every reason to believe that such an organization exists, and that it now has a strength of over 100 active members. A leading member of the club in conversation yesterday with the writer, thus outlines the aims of the new organization.

"We have a club of Republicans not floaters and itinerant men, but citizens and business men who are tired of having the affairs of Ormsby Republicans in the hands of a few men who dictate the policy of the party year after year, and say who shall and who shall not be elected."

"There has been too much offensive bossism in this town, and the club proposes to take a hand in politics and vote nearly solid on all propositions. This is merely a starter, and two years from now the politics of Ormsby will be under the club's control."

While the exact status of the club at the present time is somewhat uncertain, there is no question that there is such a club, and that on Tuesday last it made its power felt and largely shaped the direction of the voting.

The leaders have displayed skill and tact, and no good Republican can complain of the ticket nominated on Tuesday last.

The question is purely a numerical one. When the club embraces within its membership a majority of the Republican voters in Ormsby, it will naturally dictate party nominations.

SHOULD BEAT HIM IF TRUE.

If the charge made against Theo. Winters is true relative to his blowing the gas out in the International Hotel in Virginia City, it practically settles any chances he might have had of success in his gubernatorial race.

No man can be depended on to rule a State Government, who deliberately blows out the gas before retiring for the night.

The Capitol building is illuminated by gas and should Winters be elected it would be necessary to take out all the gas fixtures and light the building with tallow candles in order to preserve Winters' life through his term of office.

These matters present serious food for reflection to the taxpayers of Nevada.

To elect as Governor a man who does not understand how to manipulate a gas fixture, will cause Nevada in the East to be dubbed "The Uncivilized Borough."

We Obey the Law.

Sam Davis has very wisely concluded not to defy Uncle Sam and withdrawn the lottery advertisements from the APPEAL.—Tribune.

If the editor of the Tribune had been as law abiding as the above would indicate, he would not have laid himself liable to indictment and imprisonment by violating the statutes relative to writing threatening letters.

The APPEAL has always been willing to accept money from lottery companies in payment of advertising. Its editor however never wrote a letter to anyone asking for money to fight a home lottery company, in the interest of one in another State.

Since the Tribune has revived the lottery question, we will pause a moment to ask him if he on the 10th day of July last, wrote a letter to J. E. McHenry, No. 311 Bush street, S. F., asking him "what sum" he could command for fighting the Nevada lottery.

The man who writes such red hot anti lottery advertisements for the Record Union, recently drew one of the big prizes in the Louisiana Lottery. He will of course donate the winning to the Crocker Art Gallery.

BETTER THAN A

GOVERNMENT BOND.

The MANHATTAN for a limited period will offer the residents of Nevada a Bond Combining Insurance and investment that is in reach of all and which every healthy able-bodied man in the State should possess—for the protection of himself and family.

In explanation read what follows: Suppose a special agent of the U. S. Treasury Department should call on you today and say:

The Government would like to sell you bonds for any amount between $1,000 and $30,000 and if it is not convenient for you to make the investment at once, we will allow you to pay for the bonds in Ten Equal Annual Installments.

And, suppose, in addition to this, the Government, wishing to make this the most desirable investment in the world, should stipulate in the bond, not only to pay them at the end of the term, but in case of your previous death, to pay them to your family and AT THE SAME TIME RELEASE YOUR FAMILY FROM PAYING ANY FURTHER MONEY.

Would you not at once close with such an offer? And yet this is practically what the Manhattan Life Insurance Company, of New York has done and is doing.
